That truly being a HERO does not take a lot of effort, it's about the little things you do.

Being a hero can mean many things. It can be the fact that you do not let time pass you by without acknowledging the people in your life; you are not a victim of the social barriers that separate us all.

A hero is someone who does not give up, in spite of the walls and obstacles in their way. Will "not stop running" - even. You recognize that "Pain is inevitable, Misery is a Choice". The ticket holder also acknowledges that a hero can also be someone who tries to take steps outside their own boundaries every day, to positively affect the lives of those around them. You know that life is not about the big leap, it's about the first step.

Holder agrees to take a RECESS whenever possible and will never forget the unbridled joy of being a kid. Just remember to breathe through your nose...
